New York, Oct. 6. — The New York Yankees made world series history today, shutting the Giants out, 5 to 0, in the second game, leaving the New York Nationals without a win in 18 games of play. They did it by lively work on the bases and the best possible use of their few hits, supported by the brilliant twirling of Walter Hoyt, their young right-handed star, who allowed the Giants but two puny singles.

Unlike the opening encounter of this 11-New York series, today's game was played before a crowd that taxed the capacity of the Polo grounds, and let off loose at frequent intervals in outbursts of enthusiasm. The contest, like a pitchers' battle between Hoyt and Artie Nehf, who twirled stellar all for the Giants, was replete with rattling plays and tense moments, ever before has a world series opener with two straight shut-outs of the one contestant.

So tight was Hoyt's pitching that the Giants never had more than four men at the plate in any one inning. He nearest they came to the home base was in the ninth inning, when, with one down, singled to right, and went to second when Young was used a base on balls. He was on his feet home second as a fast double play on Young and Kelly ended the inning and the game.

...Ruth, Demon Base Stealer.

The game revealed "Babe" Ruth in a new role, that of the demon base stealer—a role that seemed just about as popular with the crowd as his smiling one of long run long. The first base steal came in the second inning, when he stole second and third, and his clean pittering of the far corner was greeted with the wildest demonstration of the series to date.

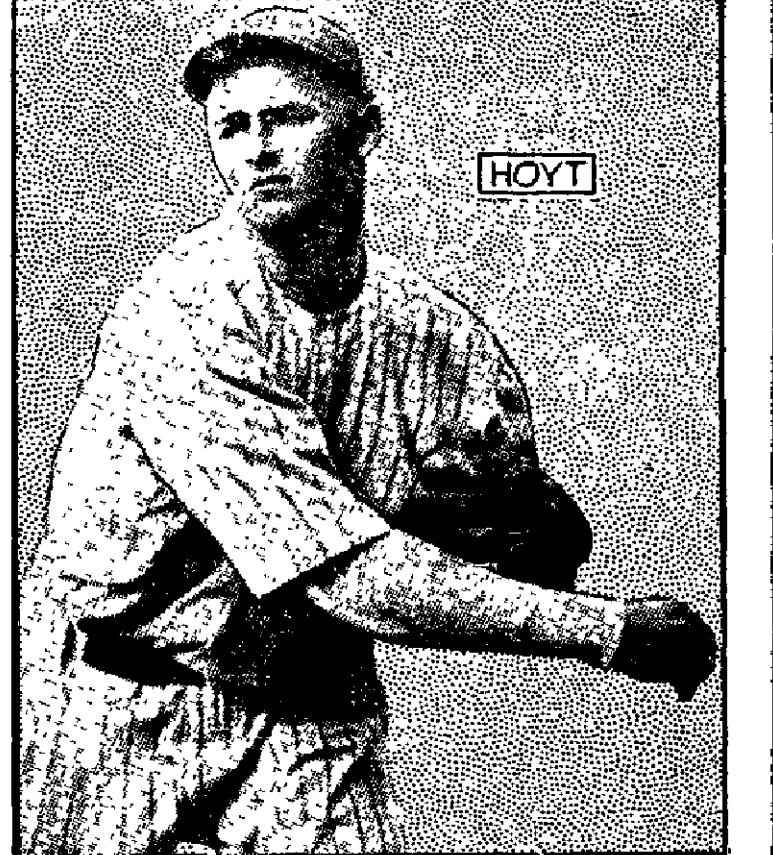

At the bat, Ruth's record was colorful. He did not once connect safely, but appeared to pitch to him every man, in trying to cut the corners. He seemed to have three passes to go to follow, much to the disgust of the majority of the crowd, who were, cutting on the bases once through a cinder's choice and finally tallying.

Ruth's base stealing feat was performed late in the inning and didn't suit in a run. Not so, however, the surprise sprung by the new most likely cause of the "demon" base stealer, the Yankee Bob Meusel, who stole second and third, and his clean pittering of the far corner was greeted with the wildest demonstration of the series to date.

scoring line until the eighth, when the Yankees added two. Frisch muffed Peckinpaugh's easy fly back of second base. Ruth smashed a grounder to Kelly who threw out Peckinpaugh at second, Bancroft taking the throw. Ruth sprinted to third on Bob Meusel's single to third and came home as Pipp was going out on a grounder, Rawlings to Kelly. Meusel took third on the play. Then the unexpected again happened—Meusel's steal home amid cheers that shook the grandstand. Ward ended the inning by fouling out to Kelly.

In addition to establishing a new world series record of two consecutive shut-outs by the same team in the first two games, the gate receipts record established yesterday also went by the board. The 34,999 spectators who witnessed the Yankees' second victory paid $115,320. This was more than six times the gate receipts in the second game of the 1905 series, which was the first played at the Polo grounds under National Commission rules.

By a strange coincidence, the Giants lost that game to the Philadelphia Athletics on the same field and by the same score as that of today's contest. Chief Bender did the hurting for Connie Mack and it was the only game won by the Athletics in the famous shut-out series. At that game, the first of the series in New York, 14,992 persons paid $15,938.

Of the $115,320 paid today, the players will receive $53,813.20; the clubs, $39,208.80, and the advisory board, $21,298. If interest in the series continues and the play should extend to six or seven games, a new total receipts record is almost certain in view of the high prices being charged for both reserved and unreserved seats at the Polo grounds.

Batteries for Friday's Game.

The consensus of opinion among local sport writers is that the batteries tomorrow will be Shawkey and Seaborg for the Yankees and Toney and Snyder for the Giants.

Great pitching, great hitting and daring base running gave us the victory," said Manager Huggins tonight. "My men played the same kind of a dashing game that they did on Wednesday and the Giants were unable to reach the plate."

RAIL UNIONS TAKE FINAL STRIKE ACTION MONDAY

Chicago, Oct. 6. — Decision whether a strike will be called by the six railroad unions whose membership recently voted upon the question of accepting or rejecting a 12 1/2 per cent wage reduction, will be made at a meeting here Monday, it was announced tonight.

General chairmen of all the interested unions of all the roads have been called to Chicago for this meeting. MORE CITY CRAFT COMES TO LIGHT

Witness Testifies Money Influenced Officials to Purchase His Concrete Blocks

New York, Oct. 6. — John P. O'Rourke, constructing engineer, who participated in building New York subway, tubes under the East and North rivers, and Local Railroad tunnel, told the Meyer investigating committee today that he paid $8,500 to William F. Matthews for "preaching the doctrine of concrete blocks" to city officials of Queens borough and everywhere else he could button-hole.

Mr. O'Rourke said that as a result of this missionary work, a condition was brought about in which the blocks in which the blocks he was interested in were specified in an $876,000 contract for sewer tunnel construction in Queens.

Another contractor, who said he had done millions of dollars of city work, Joseph Sigretto, declared he paid John M. Phillips $48,000 in two years for getting municipal contracts, and seeing that the city paid the money without delay, Sigretto said his concern was paid $25,000 by another for turning over a contract and added that he gave the money to Phillips, who he quoted as saying that $14,000 of it would be used in the political campaign of Borough President Maurice Connolly.

Other witnesses described Phillips as agent for a lock pipe company and said he used a table in the city engineer's office of Queens borough and frequently examined blueprints there for their construction projects.

The corps of committee questioners sought to learn specifically from Mr. O'Rourke what the $8,500 fee was for. Mr. Matthews was paid for, but the answers always were general.

State Senator Charles C. Lockwood and former State Senator Charles F. Murphy, a Republican leader in Brooklyn, denied charges made before the committee two days ago by Police Inspector John E. Sawyer that they had received money for their activities in connection with the detective bill at recent legislative sessions.

TAX PROGRAM AGREED UPON

Republican Senate Leaders Believe
Plan Will Harmonize Prevailing
Differences

REJECT SMOOT IDEA

Increased Surtax Rate and Repeal
of Transit Taxes Principal Proposals Favored

Washington, Oct. 6. — Republican senate leaders, in a series of conferences today, agreed upon a tentative tax revision program which they believe will close the principal gap between their party ranks in the senate and at the same time prove acceptable to the Republicans in the house of representatives.

Main points in the program are an increase in the minimum surtax rate from 32 per cent to 50 per cent and repeal of the tax on freight, passenger and Pullman transportation. In addition, it is proposed to repeal the $2,000 exemption allowed corporations, which would mean an additional $50,000,000 of revenue from corporate sources; retain the corporation surtax, estimated to yield $75,000,000 next year, and repeal the various so-called nuisance taxes, such as those on soda water, cosmetics, proprietary medicines, and the like.

There also was said to have been a tentative agreement to increase the estate taxes so as to have a maximum of 40 or 50 per cent on estates in excess of $100,000. The present maximum is 25 per cent on estates of $10,000,000.

Most leaders were understood to have favored the committee proposal for a flat tax of 15 per cent on corporation incomes, but there was some discussion of a graduated tax, with the rate ten per cent on corporations having an income of $50,000 or less yearly.

SMOOT PLAN REJECTED

In framing their program, the leaders considered and rejected the Smoot manufacturers' sales tax plan and also approved the committee proposal to repeal the excess profits tax as of next January 1. Active fights for the sales tax and against repeal of the profits tax are promised, however, on the senate floor. Senator Smoot gave notice today that he would speak on his plan next week.

Senators Lenroot and McCormick went over the proposed changes in the bill with treasury experts today and it was said later that while the changes would involve a shifting of a total of about $240,000,000 in taxes, the total to be raised under the bill amended as planned would be approximately the same as under the original measure, $3,324,000,000. With a flat 15 per cent tax on corporate income, the corporations would pay an estimated total of $845,000,000 a year under the revised bill, as against $710,000,000 under the pending measure, the difference being accounted for through the proposed repeal of the $2,000 exemption and retention of the capital stock tax.

Repeal of the transportation and nuisance taxes would account for approximately $200,000,000, but it was estimated that this would be made up by the proposed additional taxes on corporations and the increased income surtax rates.

The conferences today were preceded by one between President Harding and Senator Lodge, who laid before the executive the results of the conference of senators from western states which he attended last night at the home of Senator Capper. It was understood that the President indicated a desire that every effort be made to smooth out the differences between Republican senators so as to hasten passage of revenue legislation.

WOMEN'S GOLF TITLE TO REMAIN AT HOME

Last Two of Seven Foreign Players Eliminated From National Tournament

(By The Associated Press)

Deal N. J., Oct. 6. — Today's matches in the national women's golf tournament decided that the title would remain at home, the last two of seven foreign players who started in the competition Monday being eliminated.

Miss Alexa Stirling of Atlanta, the defending champion, defeated Mrs. Latham Hall of the Mid-Surrey club, England. The score was one up, the champion taking the match at the home green, as the result of a remarkable chip from the rough that carried 45 feet to within two feet of the pin.

Miss Edith Leitch, sister of the defeated British champion, Miss Cecil Leitch, lost at the 19th hole to Miss Elaine Rosenthal of Chicago.

Miss Marion Hollins of New York defeated Mrs. E. Lettice of Chicago, conqueror of Miss Cecil Leitch, 4 and 3.

The fourth survivor of the tournament is Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck of Philadelphia, who today eliminated Miss Sarah Fowkes of Pittsburgh, 6 and 5.

LEHIGH VALLEY SPLITS BUSINESS

Coal Properties to Be Operated Independently From the Railroad Itself

New York, Oct. 6. — The Lehigh Valley Railroad company today voted to separate its long-deferred plan for the separation of its coal properties from the railroad.

This was in accordance with the decree of the United States supreme court which in December of 1920 entered an order dissolving the combination of transportation and coal holdings "so as to make each component part in fact independent and competitive."

Under the segregation plan, the Lehigh Valley Coal company will issue $30,000,000 non-cumulative preferred stock without voting power, of $100 par value and seven per cent dividend rate, to be turned over to the Lehigh Valley Railroad company as a stock dividend declared out of surplus. Dividends from this stock are to be paid to the railroad company.

In order to divorce itself from all control of the coal company, the railroad company will convey all its interest in the common stock of 242,432 certificates of interest in the common stock of the coal company, on the basis of one certificate for every five shares of common or preferred railroad stock.

Stocks of other subsidiaries, including those of the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill railroad and Cox Brothers & Company, Inc., will be held as at present until maturity in 1925, when they are to be sold or otherwise disposed of for the benefit of the Lehigh Valley railroad.

The plan differs from that of other coal-owning railroads in that it calls for no assessment from stockholders and involves no sacrifice of their equity in the coal properties.

DAILY READING OF BIBLE IN THE SCHOOLS IS URGED

Rochester, Oct. 6. — The twenty-fifth annual convention of the New York State Teachers' association closed tonight with the installation of newly-elected officers and the adoption of a number of resolutions. The convention passed resolutions asking for daily reading of the Bible in the schools of the state and nation, for amendment of the state constitution to permit the establishment of children's courts and courts of domestic relations, and for the passage of the federal educational bill or some measure drawn along similar lines.

The mothers' organization also went on record by resolution as deploring unsupervised dancing and the featuring of "crime" stories in newspapers, and recommended cooperation in enforcing the prohibition law.

The state kindergarten bill, designed to provide for kindergartens in every school, was endorsed and the convention expressed the "wish to awaken communities to the importance of a new bill which allows the state to pay half the salary of the teachers and the community the other half.

SUIT AGAINST DEMPSEY IN HANDS OF THE JURY

Batavia, Oct. 6. — The suit of Frank P. Spellman against Jack Dempsey, to recover $100,000 as his share in the profits of a moving picture serial in which the heavyweight champion boxer was the hero, was given to the jury this afternoon.

Spellman's claim was based upon an alleged verbal agreement with Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, whereby Spellman was to receive 25 per cent of the profits made from the picture. The defense was that no such contract or agreement was made.

Witnesses for the defense today were Elmer R. Pearson, general manager of the company which distributed the Dempsey serial, and Fred Quigley, a former director of changes for the company. They were called by the defense to disprove certain claims made by Spellman. Indignantly, it was brought out that Dempsey and Kearns received $100,000 as their share of the profits on the moving picture.

URGES FEDERAL MOVIE CONTROL

Mrs. Boole, of W. C. T. U., Calls
For Film Standard Which All
Producers Will Respect

LAUDS ARMS PARLEY

Hopes It Will Promote International Friendship Until There Will
Be No War

Rochester, Oct. 6. — No plans for a campaign to prohibit the use of tobacco are being considered by the State Women's Christian Temperance union, Mrs. Ella A. Poole, president, declared tonight in her message to the delegates of the 48th annual convention of the state body, which opened here today.

Speaking on motion picture censorship, Mrs. Poole said that the W. C. T. U. favors a "federal motion picture commission which will establish a standard which all producers will respect."

"The national board of review has not been equal to the situation and is simply controlled by the producers," she said. "Until there are due to the fact that the producers have misjudged the taste and demands of the public. These films do more than anything else to injure the public's morals."

DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE PRAISED

Mrs. Poole praised highly the disarmament conference, saying that "an agreement to limit armaments will be a start in the right direction and we can but pray that out of this conference there may grow a spirit of international friendship which will grow and grow until there will be no more war."

The speaker warned the delegates that a strenuous fight between the prohibition forces and the "wet" is certain to take place at the polls.

"No law will enforce itself, though there is great value in a good law," Mrs. Poole said. "The adoption of the eighteenth amendment has changed the status of the beverage traffic in intoxicating liquors. Then the sale was legalized, now it is prohibited. Notwithstanding the appalling situation in regard to unemployment and the fact that rents and foods cost nearly twice as much as in pre-war days, deposits in savings banks increase. The population in prisons, insane asylums and accident cases are decreasing. More children are in school because the saloon does not get the money which was needed for the support of the home. The people are beginning to see the benefits even with partial enforcement and what will be with full enforcement."

$9,000 BINGHAMTON THEFT CLEARED UP

Post Office Clerk Who Appropriated
Two Registered Packages
Is Arrested in Kentucky

Binghamton, Oct. 6. — Earl H. Foote, 23, clerk in the local post office, was arrested in Louisville, Ky., today by department inspectors, according to word received here tonight. He is charged with the theft of $9,000 from two registered packages in the Binghamton post office on September 25.

Foote, who is married and a resident of Johnson City, was taken into custody at the home of a former sweetheart in Louisville. He had $5,710 of the alleged stolen funds in his possession and an automobile for which he is declared to have paid $3,000.

The youth was caught as the result of information furnished authorities here by his father. He was held in default of $5,000 bail and is expected to be brought back to this city at once for arraignment before United States Commissioner J. S. Wickham.

The registered packages said to have been filed by Foote were consigned from New York City to two banks in Binghamton, one of them containing $1,000 and the other $5,000.

SAYS NEW TARIFF LAW HAS REDUCED U. S. CANADA TRADE

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 6. — R. T. Sparks, president of the Canadian Association of Garment Manufacturers and a prominent figure in the textile world, speaking at the textile products show here today, criticized the emergency tariff act, and related what he termed its unfavorable effects.

Declaring the United States-Canada trade relationship in 1921, Mr. Sparks said that "during the months of June, July and August that your emergency tariff has been in operation, our exports to you have fallen to about 50 per cent less than the same months in 1920, and your exports to us have decreased a like amount." He predicted the trade for the remaining three months would probably total about one-third of what it was last year.

Referring to exchange, he said the situation was so serious that Canada was compelled by the force of economic pressure to take every step which would right the balance of trade.

WHITE SOX WIN AGAIN, BUT LOSE URBAN FABER

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The White Sox of the American league gave their National league rivals, the Cubs, a second beating in the series to decide the city championship by winning today's game, 8 to 5, but in doing so probably lost the service of Urban Faber, their pitching ace, for the remainder of the season. Faber, in fielding Barker's grounder, turned on his knee as he retired the batter and had to be assisted off the field.

MOTOR YACHT WITH 8 PERSONS MISSING

Party Which Left New York on Tour Around World May Have Met Disaster

Los Angeles, Oct. 6.—Search throughout the Pacific has been instituted for the private motor yacht, "Specksack," with the party of Captain and Mrs. Albert Y. Gowan of New York on board, according to relatives of Mrs. Gowan here. Sighting of a wrecked motor yacht off Cape San Lucas, Lower California, several days ago, but the captain, Hattie Luchinsack, has augmented fears for the safety of the Gowan party.

The Specksack left the Columbia Yacht club in the Hudson, August 21, on a tour around the world. On board in addition to Captain and Mrs. Gowan, were Mrs. D. F. Rogers, Ira J. Ingraham, F. Trevor Hogg, captain of the 1916 Princeton football team, a Chicago insurance man, a photographer and a taxidermist.

The last word known to have been received concerning the yacht was its departure ten days ago from the Panama Canal. From the canal, the yacht was to proceed to Honolulu, thence to the Far East.

The expedition planned to obtain pictures and natural history specimens for the Field Museum and the American Museum of Natural History.

LEDOUX SAYS HE'LL MARCH

JOBLESS ARMY TO ALBANY

Washington, Oct. 6.—The national conference on unemployment will reassemble next Tuesday instead of Monday as previously announced. Secretary Hoover said today. Committees will meet on Monday, he added.

Deliberations of the manufacturers' committee were continued today but little progress toward a report was made, it was said. Only minor questions were discussed.

Colonel Arthur Woods, former police commissioner of New York, assumed charge of the central agency for coordinating emergency unemployment relief throughout the country today.

He received a visit from Urban Ledoux and his traveling army of unemployed which, it was announced, will leave for Albany tomorrow.

CITE WAR RECORDS TO SHOW TEDDY'S NAME WAS FORGED

New York, Oct. 6.—Spanish-American war records of the war department today were cited in court as evidence that the signature of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt on a note for $39,000, held by Mrs. Emma Richardson Burckett of Hillsdale, Ind., was not genuine.

Patrick J. Dailigan, an employee of the record bureau of the war department, testified at Mrs. Burckett's trial on a forgery charge that the roster of the Rough Riders included no such names as Charles J. Schunson or Guy Kovell.

Mrs. Burckett had alleged that she paid the money to Schunson, a former Rough Rider, on the former President's endorsement, and that Kovell, also a Rough Rider, witnessed the transaction.

AUSTRALIA SENDS MINISTER OF DEFENSE TO WASHINGTON
(By The Associated Press)
Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 6.—Premier Hughes today announced in the house of representatives that the federal government had appointed George Foster Pearce, minister of defense, to represent Australia at the forthcoming conference in Washington on limitation of armaments and Far Eastern questions. Mr. Pearce will sit at the same table as the British delegates to the conference.

Members of the Labor party received the announcement of the appointment with hostility and Representative Charlton moved an amendment urging that representatives of all parties be sent to the conference.

WANDERERS ORGANIZE

Former Independent Team Will Represent City on Basketball Court This Season — Manager Crounse Has Aggregation of Brilliant Stars.

That Oneonta will be represented on the basketball court this winter by a five that will reflect as much credit upon the city as the community baseball team, is indicated by the announcement by Manager Thurston A. Crounse of plans for the Wanderers for the coming season. This aggregation of local amateur stars has been in existence for the past two years and in that time lost but 7 games out of 23 played, several of the teams they vanquished being sectional champions. The Wanderers will represent the city this year under the auspices of the Community Athletic association.

The local games will be played in the Normal gymnasium. It is the intention of Manager Crounse to bring the fastest amateur teams in this section into the city, among them school and college fives. Only amateur teams will be played. Every member of the Wanderers is in good amateur standing, and professionalism, the curse of every sport but baseball, will not be tolerated. Practice will start at once.

Nine men have already been signed up. The work of each of them is known to basketball fans in the city, who will realize that a team composed of such individual stars cannot fail to be worthy of wearing the city's colors. The names and records of the players follow:

Leslie Parks will captain the team and play a forward position. Parks is one of the best amateurs in this part of the state. He is a former High school star and has played two years with the Wanderers. Last season he played with fast teams around Binghamton, including the Binghamton Interstate league outfit.

Everett Kniskern, forward. Former High school star and with the Wanderers since their formation.

Stuart Keenan, forward. One of the fastest players that the local school ever turned out. With Wanderers last season. Has played with the varsity squad at Hamilton college.

Everett Westcott, forward. Last year with Wanderers and former member of famous Normal Juniors.

Dewey Thomas, With Wanderers since formation and best center ever turned out at High school.

Stanley Martin. Former High school star center and with Wanderers last season.

Carl Disbrow, guard. High school star and veteran with the Wanderers. Claude Gregory. Starred with High school for four years and was a mainstay of the Wanderers during past seasons. Can play any position.

James Tamsett, guard. High school and Wanderers star.

Manager Crounse intends to make this the best basketball year in the history of the city. This will be the first season that the community has ever been represented by a team of its own and it is hoped that the Wanderers will receive the support of all interested in the sport locally.

The high spot of the 1921 World Series opened in New York—McNally stealing home! The snapshot was taken just as Umpire Rigler cried "Safe!" McNally is on the ground just beyond Rigler, in a cloud of dust—Rawlings has just put the ball on McNally, a fraction of a second too late, and at the left is Miller, the batter, as he fell out of the way. McNally is the second man to steal home in any Series game. Ty Cobb did it in 1909.

THE WHEAT OUTLOOK.

There is no danger of a world
 shortage of wheat during the coming year, and there is at present no indication of an undue surplus, according to the October issue of Commerce Monthly. World wheat production and requirements are approximately in balance.

Estimated 1921 production of wheat
 in 20 countries which before the war produced 68 per cent of the known wheat crop of the world, aggregates 2,490,000,000 bushels as compared with 2,384,142,000 bushels produced
 last year, Commerce Monthly says.

The 1921 crop of the United States is estimated at 1,600,000,000 bushels
 and of Canada at 294,358,000 bushels.
 Allowing 600,000,000 bushels in the United States and 90,000,000 bushels
 in Canada for consumption and seeding requirements, and assuming a normal carry-over at the beginning and end of the wheat year, there would be available for export from the two countries before July 1, 1922, a little over 350,000,000 bushels.

It will be seen that wheat supplies from Russia has been abandoned and famine relief in that country may make an appreciable drain on international supplies. Crops in northern Africa are fairly good, following a very poor harvest last year, but a normal exportable surplus is not expected. Exports from India are reported to have been prohibited completely because of the poor crop and high prices, and no improvement can be expected before the 1922 harvest.
 Argentina and Australia still have a fairly large share of their last crops.
 The amount available for export from Argentina on July 1 is estimated at over 40,000,000 bushels and from Australia at about 50,000,000 bushels, allowing for a normal carry-over in each country.

Current stocks in Europe are not large but are distinctly better than last year and are sufficient to meet requirements until the new harvest is available. Normally western Europe imports an average of 400,000,000 bushels of wheat annually. Of this amount Russia formerly supplied 150,000,000 bushels. In the last crop year, ending July 1, 1921, Canada and the United States together furnished
 net exports of about 475,000,000 bushels, of which the greater part was sent to Europe.

The estimated exportable surplus of 350,000,000 bushels from the United States and Canada, together with the 90,000,000 bushels carry-over in Argentina and Australia, therefore, makes a total of 440,000,000 bushels
 available to meet the international requirement. This apparently balances the probable European requirements of approximately 400,000,000 bushels,
 with a reasonable allowance for Russian requirements.

The above facts are of interest, not only to wheat growers in the west, but to the larger number of non-producers throughout the country who buy
 but do not sell the staff of life.

THE FLIGHT OF THE FLY.

If there are any who believe that their duty toward fly extermination is done when by screened windows and doors they have shut the buzzer
 out of the house, and with a wire-reinforced swatter have destroyed or discommodated those transients which have managed to dodge inside, they are evidently mistaken. Flies which breed outside are by no means confined to any local area as to migrations. Instead, they may proceed for long distances, even over great stretches of water, and thus do their evil work at points remote from that where they were hatched. This fact shows the importance of general sanitary measures to destroy breeding places.

Fly flight tests were conducted in northern Texas, where approximately 234,000 flies of many different species were trapped, then dusted with finely powdered red chalk, and liberated.
 Fly traps baited with food highly relished by the flies were placed at measured intervals in all directions from the points of release. By means of these secondary traps, it was possible to determine the direction and light of different species of flies.

Tests showed that the flies, after regaining their freedom, would travel distances up to 1,000 feet in a few minutes. The screw-worm fly evidenced its power to cover a half mile in three hours, while the black blow-fly traveled anywhere from half a mile to 11 miles during the first two days' release. The house fly covered over six miles in less than 24 hours.
 Observations at the Rehoboth Light shoal off the coast of Florida seemed to show that flies come down the wind from Cuba (95 miles distant),
 and at times from the Marquesas Keys (24 miles distant), and even from Key West, Fla., 45 miles away.
 The maximum distance traveled by the house fly in these experiments was 13.14 miles.

The tests proved that the injurious forms of fly life were not distributed on any large scale by artificial means,
 but rather that many of the infectious species showed marked migratory habits.

Tonic for Weak Hearts.

The President made it plain that what not to do is as important as what to do, and that in his belief some of the cures which have been proposed are more to be dreaded than continued existence of present conditions. He doesn't "fall for the proposals in various forms that the federal treasury shall be raided for the relief of the unemployed," he said, "for any proposed relief which seeks either palliation or tonic from the public treasury. The excess of stimulation from that source is to be reckoned a cause of trouble, rather than a source of cure."—Washington

The Age of Lamentation.

This is an age of self-pity. Observe the records of the divorce court. Note the publications of the labor unions.
 Listen to the farmers and the university professors and the actor people and the railroad executives and the owners of shipping. They've all got the same disease. And even the politicians. The other day Lloyd George came out with a tearful complaint
 about the way the British Empire was overworking the ministry. One longs for that sturdiness of our fathers who crawled from under trees that had fallen the wrong way and grinned about it, who propped losses,
 and sailed enthusiastically into new enterprises; who insisted that they were free, white and twenty-one, and when they got tired of a job it was their constitutional right, by jinks, to quit it.—[Toledo Blade.

When All Work Together.

In a small town in North Carolina when a tent tabernacle had been destroyed by a storm, the citizens of the town got together and built a wooden tabernacle, with a seating capacity of 1,500, in one day.
 The structure was used for a meeting the evening of that day. That shows what can be done when all work together. If the whole nation would just work in the same spirit to build up the prosperity of this country, the results would be just as remarkable and satisfactory.—[Albany Journal.

The Cost of Milk.

A good dairy farmer cannot care
 for more than ten or a dozen cows
 well single handed and his income from these cows will be less than four dollars a day. A plumber, a man not so highly skilled as a good dairyman, can earn eight or nine dollars a day without any investment in material to help him produce that wage.

At the present price the farmer receives for milk and the price he has to pay for food the farmer is about as poorly paid a business man
 as can be found in America.—

The Peace of War.

The United States, according to the official estimates, will spend more than a billion and a half of dollars this year on its army and navy. If the race for naval supremacy continues it will spend greater sums each year in the effort to keep ahead of other nations in size and strength of its naval armament. England, France and Japan are spending correspondingly great and increasing sums for armament on land and sea.

 defeat.—[Milwaukee Sentinel.

The Popular Fellow.

People are getting cautious about

 larity because of their popularity.

Concerning Men and Women.

CROPS NEARLY HARVESTED.

Favorable Weather and Few Frosts
 Mark First Week of October.

The weather the past week continued favorable for harvesting and,
 with the exception of potatoes, practically all crops are now in, according to the summary of weather and crop conditions for the week ending October 4, sent out from the Ithaca office of the weather bureau. Some corn is still out, on account of the exceptionally large yield; much corn intended for silage is being hauled.
 Frosts have been generally confined to the elevated regions, and no damage of consequence has as yet been reported.

Rain is still needed in most sections, particularly in the northern and western counties. Springs and wells continue low, and many farmers are hauling water for stock. Pastures are poor and short, with resultant falling off of the milk yield.

High winds on the 30th did considerable damage over most of the state, particularly to orchards and shocked corn and buckwheat. In Chemung county many buildings were unroofed and shingles blown down.

Manager of New York Concern Writes Complimenting Oneonta and New Picture Machines at Oneonta Theatre.

O. S. Hathaway, owner of the Oneonta theatre, has received from Joseph Hornstein, general manager of the Howell Cine Equipment company of New York city, the following letter which explains itself and which will interest all residents of the city:

"My dear Mr. Hathaway:
 "I have just returned from a trip
 up-state and while in Albany I recited that on several occasions you asked me to take a run to Oneonta and inasmuch as one of our men was there installing your new equipment, I accepted the invitation and paid a visit to that city. I want to say first of all that I had no idea that Oneonta is the pretty little city that it is. Your manager, Mr. Moore, escorted me about and pointed out the different places of interest. There are many beautiful scenes in and about the city.
 "I have not had an opportunity since getting back to my desk to go over your account, but as soon as I have the time I will have our auditor write up your account in full. I will say that we spared no expense in equipping the New Oneonta theatre as far as our end is concerned. We have installed two Simplex S-type machines and a new generator as well as a new Kiegl spot light, and a Johns-Manville four machine booth.
 This equipment alone, Mr. Hathaway, will stand you in around $1,000,
 but I am willing to wager a new hat that after you see it and see the improvement on your projection, you will say that it's money well spent."

"We had a try out before I left Oneonta and everything worked perfectly. When you see the picture you are getting from this equipment, I know that you are going to feel proud of it, for right here I am willing to wager that it's a hundred per cent
 superior to any projection ever given in Oneonta."

The letter closes with the usual congratulations and best wishes. It is certainly very complimentary to Oneonta and the picture equipment at the New Oneonta.

ERIE AND D. AND N. RAILWAY.

Big System May Absorb Little Delaware Company Railway.

Con siderable excitement reigned in Andes last week, due to a report that the Erie railroad was casting envious glances toward the D. and N. The climate was reached Thursday when two men made a survey of the road in the sup. of right of way's motor car. One of these men was traveling freight agent for the Erie and the other was President Underwood of the Erie system.

According to plans voiced by these men, should the Erie decide to purchase the D. and N. would be extended from East Branch to connect with the Erie at Catonsville, near Hancock, and from Arkville via Gilboa
 and Schoharie to meet the D. and N.
 near Schoharie. The Andes branch would also be extended to Bovina
 over the old roadbed that has already been graded.

Whether this plan will ever be realized is, of course, a question, but everyone is hoping for the change to take place, preferring the Erie to the D. and N. The Erie could make the D. and N. pay for about a mile take place the tremendous overhead to the Margaretville shops and offices would be swept away, without the addition of a single clerk or round-houseman at the Binghamton terminal of the Erie. It is presumed, however, that the purchase price will be so great that the Erie will never take further action.

Potatoes at Worcester.

Because of the continued warm weather of the past week, the potatoes in this village, has been rather quiet. Prices have dropped to 30c per bushel. Digging is under way and the prospects are pointing to a smaller crop than last year. Very little rot among late varieties is found.—[Times.

BOYS SCHOOL AT COOPERSTOWN.

Hospital Buildings Erected at Large Outlay May Be Used.

The rumor is current about Cooperstown and elsewhere in the county that the elaborate and costly buildings erected at Cooperstown by Edward S. Clark and originally intended for a hospital for that village and surrounding country but which have never been occupied save for a time
 after the war as a convalescing hospital for men whose health became impaired in the air service during the war, are being considered as a home
 for a high grade school for boys,
 where preparatory work is to be done.

The plans are understood to be in embryo at present and no definite announcement could be secured from any one conversant with the plans of the owner. It is quite generally under stood that the plan for a hospital has not been carried out because of doubt of ability to utilize so complete an equipment of buildings with another hospital in the village and that the owner is considering other uses which will prove of value to society and at the same time prove of benefit to the county seat.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Never before in the history of this city was there seen such a crowd as gathered to attend the BIG TRANSFER SALE of this big clothing stock of Greenberg's, 128 Main street, now in the hands of the Bankers Mercantile Co., of Buffalo.

To prevent a panic we were obliged to call upon the police. Goods were carried away by the armful, and the rapid way the people purchased proved they found goods marked and selling at the low prices as advertised. We wish to make it known to those who came and could not get in that many extra salespeople have been secured to meet the demands of this sale. We also want to inform those who attended the sale and could not find some few goods that were advertised, such as Canvas Gloves at 5c a pair; Corduroy Pants at $1.98; Under Shirts and Drawers at 25c each; goods that we did not have the time to get out and place on sale; that we now have these goods on display and plenty of them; also a big assortment of Men's Rubber Boots and Rubbers of all kinds, and at prices that will be the talk of the town.

So get in line tomorrow and join the crowd and get your share of the great bargains at the old store and stand of

HAYWARD ARRAIGNED

Suspect in Weidmann Murder Case Given Hearing in Scranton — His Bloodstained Clothes Offered in Evidence.

Bloodstained clothes, admitted by the defendant to have been worn by him, were offered in evidence Wednesday afternoon at the police court hearing in Scranton of George B. Hayward, charged with the murder of Harry P. Weidmann of this city. Hayward was committed without bail by Judge Kelly. Habeas corpus proceedings were taken in the afternoon on the ground that there is no evidence to connect him with the crime, are to be begun at once by Hayward's attorney, James J. Powell.

In a confession made shortly after his arrest, Hayward admitted that he took a light checked suit to Scranton. The suit presented in court Wednesday was found among his possessions and bears bloodstains which might easily have been gotten in such a scuffle as Weidmann is reported to have had with his assailant. Hayward claims that the blood stains resulted from an auto accident.

Submission of two statements made by Hayward, one in Syracuse and one in Scranton, in which he admits having been in Scranton on the night of the crime, but denying all knowledge of the killing, marks the close of the prosecution's case against the man.

The chief point brought out in Hayward's favor during the hearing was that none of the witnesses were able to identify him as one of the group they saw near the murder and in the scuffle.

ANOTHER GIANT FUNERAL

Services in Front of Star Office Largely Attended by Enemies as Well as Friends of the Deceased.

A capacity crowd again packed the Broad street Polo grounds to witness the second game of the world series between the Giants and the Yankees yesterday afternoon. Witness and hear would be more correct, as the reports were first read from a window of the Star office and then posted on the bulletin board. The bleachers, represented by a line of chairs on the farther curb, were well filled, and standing room was at a premium.

The crowd was again Giant in its sympathies, but Yankee rooters were more numerous than yesterday. Ball fans are proverbially tickle and like to climb on the band wagon with the winner. Possibly that was the reason.

However, even the most fanatic Giant rooters were free to concede that their idols were being licked to a frazzle by Huggins' cohorts.

The Giant rooters were "can it be possible" and "alas, how sad" expressions on their countenances as the line of goose eggs crept across the score board. Some of them made frequent inspections of their bank rolls, wondering the while how they plain to friend wife where that five or ten went.

The usual post mortem took place after the game. Again a prominent local physician was present, but explained that he was not acting officially, but simply in the capacity of a mourner.

ONEONTA'S HEALTH CENTER

COMMUNITY HOUSE NOW AFFORDING FACILITIES FOR THREE CLINICS MAY BE USED FOR TWO OTHERS

Venerable Clinic to Be Established There Tomorrow — Psychopathic Clinic Being Considered by Social Work Association — State Hospital Authorities Offer to Cooperate — Need Pointed Out by Secretary of Social Work Association.

Already serving as the seat of three clinics, which have been of invaluable service since their establishment early in the summer, the new Community house at 17 Ford avenue is soon to become more useful as a health and welfare center. Plans of the city health authorities and the Family Social Work association are carried out. Tomorrow the first clinic for those suffering from venereal diseases will be held there. The Social Work association is also considering a proposal to establish a psychopathic clinic.

Since the first of the year venereal clinics have been held each week at the Fox Memorial hospital. An increasing number have availed themselves of this free treatment. The most modern methods of treatment are administered and the results have been satisfactory. The clinical rooms at the Community house have been equipped for the purpose, and Dr. George W. Augustin, who has charge of the treatment, has considered it wise in the future to conduct the venereal clinic there and thus round out the purpose of the new health center.

Considerable has already been said in these columns about the dental, child health and tuberculosis clinics that are being held periodically. These are being conducted under the direction of the city department of health and are financed by the Oneonta chapter of the American Red Cross.

In arranging for the dental clinic the department has had generous cooperation from Dr. Frank H. Tatlock and Dr. Arthur S. Barnes. Dr. Tatlock was a great assistance in ordering supplies and advising as to the arrangement of the operating room. Dr. Barnes contributed largely to the equipment, his gifts including a dental chair.

Psychopathic Clinic Considered.

The work in which Miss Martha Poston, as secretary of the Family Social Work association, and Miss Katharine Robertson, as Red Cross nurse, have been engaged for the past few months has brought to light the need for examination and treatment of those who are suffering from feeble mindedness and other mental defects. A striking argument in favor of such a clinic was brought out recently when Miss Katherine Crook, field agent for the State Committee for Mental Defectives, visited the city and examined five girls who had been in charge of Miss Poston. The mentality of one girl of 18 years was found to be equal to that of a girl of 7 years of 15 years had mentality of 10 years; another of 13 years and mentality of 11 years and three months, and the other two were found to be equally below normal.

In answer to a request for cooperation from the state hospital authorities of Binghamton, Dr. Charles G. Wagner, superintendent of that institution, in a letter to Miss Poston early this week, stated that he would try to send one of the members of his staff every two months for purposes of giving examinations and treatment. On one occasion previous to the war the matter of a psychopathic clinic in Oneonta was seriously considered but necessary funds were not forthcoming and the matter was dropped. Later the war overtook the facilities at the State hospital and the matter was dropped.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Family Social Work association, Wednesday night Miss Poston reported the results of her inquiry and was authorized to proceed with definite arrangements. If an arrangement similar to that proposed by Dr. Wagner can be made with the institution for feeble-minded at Rome it is hoped that a plan may be devised to have a physician from each of the institutions visit the city on alternative months to conduct the clinics.

Miss Poston in her report to the directors of the association told of the surprising proportion of cases that have come to her attention that are caused by mental defects which might be in a measure at least corrected by clinical treatment, such as is contemplated. An out-patient department conducted in Binghamton on lines similar to those proposed for Oneonta, Dr. Wagner, in his letter said, had been a great success.

Special Class for Backward Children.

Miss Poston also reported that investigation of numerous cases under her charge and under that of the health workers had revealed that there are many children in the city schools suffering from mental defects of such nature that they cannot make satisfactory progress in classes. The directors recommended that she take up the matter of having a special class for these backward children with the school authorities. The board of education has not yet considered the proposal; but it can be shown that a sufficient number of backward children exist to warrant a special class it is understood that they will give the matter serious consideration.

BROTHERHOOD OF CHRIST

Needed to Solve the Vexatious Problems That Are Pressing for Solution — Declares Bishop Berry in Last Evening's Sermon.

Bishop Berry completes this evening the ten days of special meetings at the First Methodist church and he and the church extends a cordial invitation to all to be present at the final service.

Last evening his theme was "The commission of the Kingdom" and he rounded his remarks upon the text, "As the Father hath sent Me, even so send I You." He said that Christ laid the foundation for the salvation of the world but He left it for the church to erect the superstructure and complete the task.

Four things were mentioned as the purpose of Christ's coming. To deliver a message, to interpret the significance of life, to make an amazing sacrifice and to achieve a great conquest. These are amplified in a most interesting way. His message was an authoritative one and one that meant much to the world. It is sent to all the rich and the poor, the high and the low.

Two philosophies of life are followed by men. Some consider that the acme of success is to win all of this world's goods and achieve prominence. They sacrifice all of their higher aspirations upon the altar of success. Others see in life the opportunity to move forward and deliver the best things. To live, to serve, to make the world better for mankind. We cannot judge the Christian life by the standard of happiness. It is worth more to have served one great possession.

There is a great opportunity here in Oneonta and now to apply this doctrine to the controversy between capital and labor. We cannot continue the scramble for possession and preference with no thought of how the getting affects other men and society. Some say that education will remedy the trouble. Others say agitation while still others insist that legislation will remedy the evils, that laws made for the masses and not for the classes will solve the vexatious problems. My friends, said the speaker, education, agitation or legislation will none of them eradicate selfishness and sin from the human heart. The regeneration of the human heart requires the brotherhood of Christ to live in the hearts of men. This is the greatest aim that the church of Christ can have today.

In closing the speaker emphasized the great sacrifices made and the conquest of the world that awaits the church when professed followers of the Christ go forth with the same mission in the world that brought Him to earth.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will serve the semi-annual missionary tea in the church parlors this evening from 6:30 o'clock until all are served. All are cordially invited. Menu: Baked ham; potatoes with parsley sauce; cabbage and celery salad; cranberry sauce; rolls and brown steamed bread; assorted cakes and coffee. Advt 11

AT THE STATE FEDERATION

Hundreds of Delegates From Women's Clubs Assemble Next Week in Buffalo—Representatives From Oneonta and Vicinity—Politics of the Convention.

The 27th annual convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at Buffalo next week, beginning on Monday and continuing to Friday. It is expected that there will be at least 400 delegates in attendance, practically every Woman's club in the state being represented. The city is preparing to give the visitors a royal welcome. Headquarters for the convention will be in the Hotel Statler, and the sessions will be in the ballroom of that hotel. The local arrangements are in charge of Mrs. John Miller Horton, a prominent Woman's club and D. A. R. woman of that city.

The president of the federation is Mrs. Walter S. Comly of Fort Clinton. The vice presidents are Mrs. John H. Booth of Plattsburg, Mrs. Julius H. Potter of Buffalo and Mrs. T. Sherwood Coffin of Brooklyn. Mrs. Potter is the wife of a prominent Buffalo physician, who is a native of Michigan in this county. Mrs. A. L. Kellogg of Oneonta is the recording secretary, Mrs. W. H. Purdy of Mt. Vernon corresponding secretary and Mrs. Charles J. Reeder of Canastota treasurer. There will be several social functions during the progress of the convention, one of them the 100th birthday dinner at Hotel Statler and another a breakfast on Wednesday morning at the same hotel for the Sixth district delegates, for which Mrs. Bates of Ithaca, the retiring district chairman, has arranged. Governor Miller and wife will be guests of honor at the convention, and Mrs. Douglas Robinson will be one of the speakers.

Mrs. Kellogg will leave Oneonta Sunday morning to attend the board meeting preliminary to the convention. Mrs. Doris S. Ludlum, who will be stenographer to the convention, leaves on Monday. The delegates from Oneonta, who are Mrs. M. C. Williams, Mrs. George B. Sals, Mrs. William Athorpe and Mrs. Barter Lane, will also leave on Monday, as will delegates and representatives from other clubs in this vicinity, among them Mrs. U. G. Welch of Baldwinsville, who is chairman of the committee on Child Welfare.

There will be no general election of officers of the federation this year, but the 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th districts will each elect a director and district chairman. This district, the 5th, will have as a candidate for director Mrs. Frank S. Bullard of Elmira. She is a representative club woman of her city and is well fitted for the position for which her name will be presented. District chairman Mrs. Mary McKinney of Sidney is a candidate. She is an active club woman and is also recent of the Sidney chapter of the D. A. R. So far as is known, no other candidates for the positions named have been suggested.

SIXTY PER CENT ARE SAVERS

Over Fourteen Hundred Children Have Enrolled in the School Savings System.

Interest in the savings system recently instituted in the city schools is increasing by leaps and bounds. During the past week 465 new accounts were started, making a total of 1,453 accounts enrolled in the past two weeks. Now 62 per cent of all the school children in Oneonta have savings accounts, a record of which any city might well be proud.

The fifth grade at the River Street school has the membership record to date. Mrs. Georgianna Patrick, principal of that school, reports that every child in the 5th grade has opened an account. The Educational Thrift Service, Inc., originators of the plan, have forwarded membership buttons in the School Bank Club of America to every boy and girl in that grade.

The interest shown in the savings scheme by the various schools is shown by the following report, which gives the number of students enrolled in each school, the number of depositors, and the percentage:

Let the Doctor Say What the "Medicine Should Be

The human machine is the most wonderful thing in the world. Nature intended that it should work perfectly. And nature sees that it does work if not interfered with. The doctor spends years in studying the many complicated parts of this machine. He knows enough about it to realize that he can't tell just what's wrong with himself when he feels bad. He calls another doctor. So when you feel "off" yourself, don't try to guess what's wrong. Let the doctor find out. From his observations he prescribes the "medicine" to help nature work right. Then we follow his orders exactly.

EVERYBODY AT THE FAIR

BUTTERNUT VALLEY INSECTED YESTERDAY, ALL ROADS LEADING TO MORRIS.

Crowd of More Than 15,000 Persons on the Grounds—Two Horse Injured in Collision With Automobile—Fine Exhibition Comes to Close This Afternoon.

Whoever was unfortunate enough not to be in Butternut valley yesterday missed one of the great events of the season—the Morris fair. It was in the valley, it is certain that he was at the fair, for not only were valley and adjacent hillsides depopulated, but there were present thousands of others representing all parts of Otsego, Delaware and Schoharie counties, with a sprinkling of others from points more remote. Some in fact a considerable number—came in horse drawn vehicles, but by far the larger in automobiles from the most ancient driver to the newest and biggest creation of the motor-maker's art. A conservative estimate puts the number in attendance yesterday at 15,000 and there were probably 1,500 automobiles on the ground or parked along the streets or in fields outside.

While many other fairs have come to rely to an extent on special attractions, and Morris among others, the fair in that village has retained more than perhaps any other the nature of an earlier day. There is, for example, such abundance of flowers as hints of fine old gardens and window boxes redolent of perfume. There is such a variety of bread, pies and cakes as confirm the belief that cooking is not a lost art in the Butternut valley. There is profusion of fine needlework, running from aprons and waists to "ancestral sofa pillows." There are vegetables and fruits of all kinds, even apples in a year when Otsego is almost destitute of them. There are specimens of the more modern canned products of the Home Bureau and Junior project workers. There is ample space devoted to the work of the grades in the schools of the fifth Otsego district, and this attracts perhaps more attention than most other things in the big building.

These are some of the exhibits in Floral hall. Elsewhere are shown some of the finest herds in the county, and among the animals the State Banker's association, bull which the zeal and ability of the Junior Project workers, mostly from Western Otsego, has brought again to this county. There are literally hundreds of sheep, many of them crowded out of doors, and swine of many breeds and of all sizes from porcine mammoths down to week-old sucking pigs. There are exhibits from the Dr. Morris prizes, all shown in one building; and in another the Physical Welfare workers, and mothers with their little ones waiting patiently even after 4 o'clock to have their children weighed and tested. There is something of interest at every turn on the fair grounds; and it is the general verdict that, good as the fair has always been, this is "the best ever."

Among the exhibitors from Oneonta, having tents on the ground were the Oneonta Sales company, the Francis Motor Sales company, and Arthur M. Butts, with automobiles, and the latter with farm machinery; and the Elmore Milling company, with its dairy and poultry grains and feeds. In the main building there was also a booth devoted to the interests of the Mohawk Valley Investment corporation, with S. U. Ferguson of Utica and U. A. Ferguson of Oneonta in charge. A. M. Butts was awarded first premium for the best exhibit of automobiles.

Accident on Race Track.
The third day of the fair was marked by another accident which involved several persons and might have had serious consequences. The fourth heat of the 221 trot had just been started, and the horses were rounding the curve on the back side of the grounds, when an auto darted across the track in front of the speeding horses. The drivers immediately pulled up their horses, but it was too late to avoid a collision, and a general mix-up resulted, a couple of the sulks being overturned. An inventory of the damage showed that it was confined to the B, the last horse owned by Marshall of East Springfield. She suffered a bad gash in the breast, and it is feared may be seriously injured.

The accident was particularly unfortunate owing to the fact that the race was being hotly contested, three heats having been run off without a win. It is not known whether the race will be run off today. The result of the 214 trot and 215 pace follows:

Buster Boy, Gray, Delhi 111
Butty R. Price, Cobleskill 222
Bingo, Farley, Cazenovia 333
Ashbourne, Hamilton, Richfield 444
Time—2:19, 2:19, 2:20.

The floral parade attracted deserved attention, and was recognized as being the best in several years. Decorated boats, wagons, automobiles and horses were included in the parade, and as a whole it was a beautiful exhibit. The prize winning floats will parade again today, as will the prize horses and cattle.

Judging of the horses will take place this morning in front of the grandstand. There will be the usual platform attractions, and music by the Endicott-Johnson band. This is the last day of the fair, and no doubt there will be another large crowd on hand. Up to last night, the receipts had not equaled the 1920 figures, as there was one bad day this year.

The state troopers from the Sidney barracks are rendering excellent service on the grounds. Yesterday morning, they formed the autos in three lines outside the grounds, and they proceeded inside in an orderly manner. The troopers also assisted in parking the cars on the grounds.

Mrs. L. D. Cummings and Mrs. S. M. Flint are delegates from the Worcester Literary club to the annual meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs in Buffalo next week.

CHICAGO POLICE DISCARD RIOT RIFLE FOR SHOTGUN

Find New Weapon More Effective in Operation Against Thugs.

Substitution of the shotgun for the rifle is the latest development in man-hunting by the Chicago police. The time-honored rifle-squad has given way to the pump-gun squad.

The reason for the change was thus outlined by Michael Hughes, chief of detectives:

"In close-range fighting the pump-gun is much the more efficient weapon, for within 80 feet of the objective it has a spread of four feet. Each shot carries nine rounds of lead, corresponding in size to that in a .38 revolver bullet.

"In street fighting, also, the chances of hitting the innocent bystander are greatly minimized by the use of the shotgun, because the effective range is so short.

"The other day we discovered a new use for the shotgun. During a race after bandits in an automobile, one of our men emptied his gun through the rear curtain of the speeding machine ahead. The hail of bullets stopped that car as no rifle shot would ever have done.

"The gun we use has the shortest stock. Every one of the detective cars carries these guns as regular equipment."

Another innovation in the detective bureau's equipment is a steel shield, as high as a man's head, from behind which the operatives can direct, in comparative safety, their fire at bandits barricaded in a building. This portable armor is mounted on rollers, and is light enough, so that one man can operate it. Portholes, through which to fire, and a heavy glass peep hole are appendances.

Bombing, which is now a recognized part of police tactics in Chicago, can be carried on with great impunity from the shelter of this shield, said Chief Hughes.

Possibility of Another Ice Age.

A succession of such eruptions as that of the Mt. Katmai volcano in Alaska in June, 1912, would plunge the earth into another ice age by reducing the sun's temperature to a low degree on earth, Dr. Robert E. Griggs said before the American Association for Advancement of Science.

Could Dare Anything.

According to an authority, "onions contain more calories than some meats and make an invigorating soup for convalescents." After nibbling at a few scallions, eating onion soup and topping off with steak smothered in onions, the most delicate invalid should have a heart for any fate.

REDUCE THOSE DANGEROUS SWOLLEN VEINS

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful, ointment that not only cures catarrhs or varicose veins and bunches to become normal, but also reduces galled, unhealed chancres and sores.

Use any first-class drugstore for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore, if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will begin at once. Generous sample on request of bona fide sufferers. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. All records have been broken by the grand jury in Broome county which on Wednesday returned 138 indictments after the longest session in the county history. About one-half of the indictments were for violation of the liquor tax law. Three times as many cases were considered as were ever before presented to a jury in Binghamton.

Finding the work distasteful, Harold L. Hart of Binghamton has handed in his resignation as state prohibition director. It is stated that he finds the work too hard and the salary too low, and that he resents interference from Washington with his administration.

Sidney is to celebrate Home week October 10-15, with a street fair for which an excellent program has been prepared.

The city of Binghamton is afflicted with an army of skunks. The Binghamton Sun says: With skunks approaching doors of all-night restaurants, visiting the Lackawanna and Erie railroad stations and wandering through the most prominent thoroughfares when heavy traffic vanishes after midnight, residents have come to the belief that some action should be taken at once to exterminate the numerous skunks now making their homes under sheds, barns and other structures. So numerous are the animals that they travel in pairs and occasionally three or four are seen together in streets in the heart of the city.

The Centennial celebration to be held in the Masonville Methodist Episcopal church has been postponed to October 16 and 17, when it is expected a number of former pastors and members will attend.

The fifth annual community rally will be held this (Friday) evening at Decatur. There will be a chicken-pie supper to be served by the men of the community, followed by an address by Floyd S. Barlow. A community sing will be a feature of the gathering.

During the past week realty valued at $100,000 has changed hands at Fleischmanns. The most valuable is the Hotel Switzerland for $50,000.

There is a movement on foot to open a public library at Bohlmann park. This property was bequeathed to the village of Andes some time ago to be used for a park and community house. So far nothing has been done to carry out the terms of the will. Another effort is also being made to raise the sum of $500 to purchase the Burdette property in front of the high school. Both projects should be carried through.

The Farmer Today Is a Business Man

HE does not run his farm in the haphazard fashion he did ten years ago. It's his business. He figures his costs and profits.

He knows, of course, what he gets out of the productive acres of his farm—and how much he is paying out in taxes on the idle, unproductive stump and swamp land that brings in nothing.

That Is Why He Is Clearing More Land Every Year

It's just good business. Every acre cleared and planted means more profit every year. The clearing cost is usually more than covered by the first crop.

More land is being cleared, too, because of the manufacture of dynamite made for this purpose, which makes the work easier, quicker and more economical.

Take an Inventory of Your Land

How much is productive? How much idle? Then see our local dealer and plan how much dynamite you need for this season. He will help you—and will furnish you with the reliable, efficient and economical explosives, now in greatest demand throughout this section—
